

The Assembly and Executive

Introduction

The Northern Ireland Assembly Education Service website provides information and resources for students studying CCEA GCE Government and Politics.

Developed in partnership with CCEA, Post 16 >The Assembly & Executive targets:

CCEA GCE Government and Politics

Unit AS 1: The Government and Politics of Northern Ireland The Government of Northern Ireland

Students should be able to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of:

- the government of Northern Ireland since 1994 including political arrangements such as direct rule and devolution of power to the Northern Ireland Assembly; and
- a range of political concepts such as democracy, power, authority, democratic deficit and power sharing and apply these in the political context of Northern Ireland.

Online Activity

The Executive Committee is the Government of Northern Ireland. Ministers on the Executive are drawn from the Assembly and are responsible for day to day government operational decisions in Northern Ireland. The Assembly is the legislative body, which passes laws and holds the Ministers to account. This animation explains the different roles the Assembly and the Executive play. It also demonstrates important concepts such as the D'Hondt process, how the First and deputy First Minister are chosen and scrutiny.

100

Home > Rost 16

Use the Assembly & Executive animation to support knowledge and understanding of the government of Northern Ireland and some related concepts.

To play the animation full screen, click:

- the full screen icon in the bottom corner of the player; and
- the 'esc' key on the keyboard to exit full screen mode.

How to Use the Multimedia

Web Resources

You will find information about the structure and work of the government of Northern Ireland on The Assembly & Executive

Post 16 > The Assembly & Executive

http://education.niassembly.gov.uk/