

Introduction

The Northern Ireland Assembly Education Service website provides information and resources for students studying CCEA GCE Government and Politics.

Developed in partnership with CCEA, Post 16 >The Work of the Assembly targets:

CCEA GCE Government and Politics

Unit AS 1: The Government and Politics of Northern Ireland
The Government of Northern Ireland

Students should be able to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of:

- the government of Northern Ireland since 1994 including political arrangements such as direct rule and devolution of power to the Northern Ireland Assembly; and
- a range of political concepts such as democracy, power, authority, democratic deficit and power sharing and apply these in the political context of Northern Ireland.

Online Content

The Work of the Assembly section of the website contains comprehensive information about the main functions of the Northern Ireland Assembly: Making Legislation, Scrutinising the Executive Committee, Representing Constituents and the Role of the Speaker.

How to Use the Website

Use this section of the website to explore information on the government of Northern Ireland. An additional sidebar enables you to navigate this content.

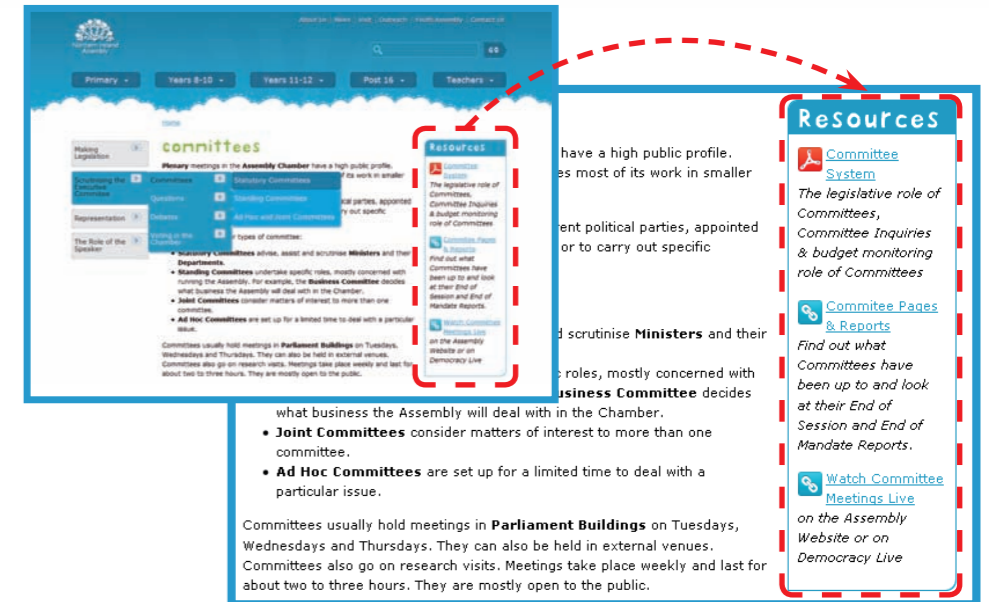

Roll over:

- the first button to view a secondary tier of navigation; and
- menu items with blue arrows to reveal any further tiers of navigation.

Click on:

- the first button to view the introduction to that section;
- additional menu items you wish to select to view the content for that link; and
- any resources on the web page or in the Resources box if available.

Web Resources

You will find a number of online resources to support The Work of the Assembly content. This includes video clips, photo galleries, PDFs, multimedia activities and other links on the web page or in the Resources box if available.

Post 16 > The Work of the Assembly

